- I understand that as a volunteer, I will have direct contact with students and am required to submit a criminal record check to the District office.
- I understand that as a volunteer, I will be supervised at all times by FJUHS personnel, and understand that personal information will be entered into the Megan's Law website.
- I am aware that during my volunteering, confidential information may be made available to me. I understand that it is critical that this information not be disseminated within or outside the school community.
